

NCCU Registration Notice

To: Undergraduate, graduate students of all departments and institutes

cc: All colleges, departments, institutes, sections, offices and centers

Objective: Description of procedures for registering for the fall semester of the 2024 academic year; please register according to the policies described below.

Description:

1 : Registration

Please complete the following steps for registration before September 13, 2024 (Friday)

Please pay tuition before the deadline as stipulated in the "Regulations for Paying Tuition." Your full tuition statement can be downloaded from the following webpage:
<https://eschool.firstbank.com.tw/member/index.aspx>

※ According to Article 13 All students are required to pay all fees and complete all procedures within the deadline as stipulated in the enrollment notice. Those who fail to complete their enrollment and payment, application for suspension of study, or retention of student status two weeks after the deadline will have their enrollment statuses removed at the time of enrollment if they are new students for the current academic year. Students will be either put on suspension if they have not reached their maximum suspension period as defined in Article 41, or have their admission withdrawn with immediate effect. This excludes situations where students have explained in writing and sought permission otherwise from the Office of Academic Affairs.

2: Course Selecting and attending classes: (Registration Section: Tel. 02-29393091 ext.63279).

1. Course selection for the 2024 fall semester will be conducted via the online course selection system.
2. Starting on July 15, 2024, students may go to the webpage to look up available courses and other related information which can be downloaded and will be announced later in Instruction Resources Section and each department.
3. First initial course selection for fall 2024 is from August 20, 2024 to August 22, 2024.
Second initial course selection for fall 2024 is from August 26, 2024 to August 28, 2024.
4. The period for adding and dropping courses for fall 2024 is from September 9, 2024 to September 16, 2024.
5. Classes formally begin on September 9, 2024(Monday).

3: Payment policy (Cashier Section: Tel. 02-29393091 ext. 62119 - 62123, 62125 – 62127, 62172-62173).

Payment: Stage I, before September 13,2024(Friday)

1. Freshman/Graduate Freshman: Starting on August 28, 2024, tuition statement can be downloaded from the following webpage.
<https://eschool.firstbank.com.tw/member/index.aspx>

Other students:Starting on August 12, 2024, tuition statement can be downloaded from the aforementioned webpage.

2. Payment can be made at any branch of First Commercial Bank in Taiwan with the tuition statement. Students also have the options of Automated Teller Machines (ATM) for payment transfer, wire transfer via online banking, and Convenience stores (7-Eleven, Family Mart, Hi-Life or OK convenience store around the country). For detailed information please refer to tuition statement. Please keep the receipt so that students can procure it upon request (students that want a refund should pay tuition at the First Commercial Bank counter).
- 3 The deadline for the tuition payment of fall semester 2024 is September 13,2024(Friday).The bank may no longer process the payment after the above-mentioned date, and late payments will be dealt with according to article 13 of the school policies.

Payment: Stage II, before November 22, 2024 (Friday)

1. Students below should pay additional fees per credit hour after the add-drop period according to school policy:
 - (1) Undergraduate students enrolled in English Taught Program in College of Commerce.
 - (2) Undergraduate students with a minor and/or enrolled in a special program (※If the department has expanded the number of courses for minor programs but you are unable to attend the class and selects a corresponding course in the regular program, you must still pay the credit fees.
 - (3) Undergraduate students extending their studies beyond the 4-year program with nine credits or less per semester
 - (4) Master's and Ph.D. students that are enrolled in Ph.D., Master's, and undergraduate courses
 - (5) Undergraduate students shall pay credit fees if they take retake already-passed courses for the third time or more.
2. Students who use the language and audiovisual facilities in the Foreign Language Center shall pay the language learning equipment fee.
3. Undergraduate students extending their studies beyond the 4-year program with more than 10 credits per semester will be required to pay the full amount for "tuition and miscellaneous fees".
4. Students can download the Stage II tuition statement online from October 21,2024.
5. Stage II payment follows the payment procedure detailed in Item 2 of Stage I
6. Students will be given a grade of zero during course assessment if they fail to pay the fees above within the given deadline. Students who have been approved to make retroactive payments before the suspension of study deadline of the current semester should be charged late fees in addition to the original fees. Late fees are calculated according to the number of days past due. It is calculated as 1% of the original fee for every two days past due, up to a maximum of 15% of the original fee and less than NTS2,000.

※ Undergraduate students that are unable to graduate on time and remain on campus to complete the required number of credits should pay the insurance and IT equipment fees during Stage I of tuition payment (Students who pay fees late will be disciplined according to the regulations of the Registration Section), and then pay the per credit fees and additional school fees during Stage II.

4: Procedure for resuming studies:

Students whose hiatus or enrollment status is about to expire should follow the procedures to resume studies at NCCU. You will need to enroll, pay tuition, and select the required number of courses to successfully complete resumption of studies according to regulations.

Appendix: Other departmental policies

I Life Guidance and Overseas Chinese Student Advising Section (LGOCSAS) – Administration Building, 3rd Floor

1. Policy for tuition refunds when requesting a leave of absence / terminating studies (Contact: 02-29393091 ext. 62226)

- (1) Before the deadline to pay tuition, currently enrolled students who request a leave of absence or termination of studies do not need to pay the additional school fees. Newly enrolled students that request a leave of absence or termination of studies need to bring their First Commercial Bank or Taiwan Post account information to the Cashier Section so that they can wire the refund into the right account. Apart from inquiries about tuition refunds, other questions about the procedures for leaves of absence and terminating studies can be directed to the Admissions Section of the Office of Academic Affairs at extension 63279. Students who had assigned a bed should go to the Student Housing Service Section to complete the refund process.
- (2) When requesting a leave of absence or terminating studies, LGOCSAS is responsible for starting the refund process. The Cashier Section then transfers the refund directly into your account. Students should not go to LGOCSAS to process their refund.
- (3) Students that complete the process for leave of absence or termination of studies before the deadline for paying tuition will receive a full refund of the additional school fees. Students that complete the process for leave of absence or termination of studies one day after the deadline for paying tuition, up to the day that marks completion of one-third the term, will be refunded two-thirds of the additional school fees. Students that complete the process for leave of absence or termination of studies one day after the marks one-third completion of the term up to the day that marks completion of two-third the term will be refunded one-thirds of the additional school fees. Students that request a leave of absence or termination of studies after the day that marks completion of two-third the semester are not refunded additional school fees (no exceptions).

2. Overseas Chinese students please contact the LGOCSAS - Administration Building, 3rd Floor (Contact: 02-29393091 ext. 63011 · 63013)

- (1) Overseas Chinese students enrolled at NCCU should take note of the following: any overseas Chinese student that does not apply for an overseas Chinese visa before the deadline, does not register an address or change of address before the deadline, overstays his/her visa, or does not carry his/her passport or ARC at all times will be dealt with according to the Immigration Law. Students should pay special attention to issues that concern their vital interests as alien residents in Taiwan.
- (2) After reading this notice overseas Chinese students with a Taiwan ID should bring a copy of the ID to LGOCSAS before enrolling for classes to confirm their status.

II Student Housing Service Section –Administration Building, 3rd Floor

1. Dormitory Regulations (Contact: 02-29393091 ext. 63252)

- (1) Undergraduate students are limited to a dorm stay of one academic year (ending on the first day of the summer vacation term). When your stay is up you will need to re-apply for the dorms. Graduate students are limited to a dorm stay of four semesters. Ph.D. students are limited to a dorm stay of eight semesters. Counting begins with the semester when you are approved to live in the dorms. Graduate students may not re-apply for the dorms once they reach the maximum duration of stay.
- (2) Dormitory move-in date:
Currently enrolled undergraduate students are scheduled to move in on early September 2024. The exact move-in date will be determined on middle or late August 2024 and published on website.
- (3) Enrolled students with a dorm assignment who wish to cancel their assignment or move out of the dorms should fill out the dorm cancellation form (download from the Student Housing Service Section website) . The refund policy is based on the regulations set down by the Student Housing Service Section. Please request your cancellation as early as possible so that students on the waiting list can be assigned a dorm bed promptly. You will receive only a partial refund of the dorm fee if your cancellation is received after the deadline.
- (4) Students who have come to the end of the dorm semester limits, or those who want to cancel their dorm application for the following semester, must follow the procedures set by the regulations in the NCCU Dormitory Counseling and Management Policy and the NCCU Residence Hall Deposit Policy, so that the tuition bill for next semester can be updated and the dorm fee/deposit can be refunded. If you do not submit a request to move out of the dorms according to these regulations, the deposit will not be refunded.
- (5) New undergraduate and graduate dorm residents are required to attend the fire prevention workshop. Students that fail to attend the workshop will be given 8-10 penalty points in accordance with to the Dormitory Management Guidelines. Anyone that accumulates 10 penalty points will be asked to move out of the dorms.

2. Apartment listings – information and services (Contact: 02-29393091 ext.63252)

- (1) If you are not assigned to a dorm room you can go in person to the Student Housing Service Section to get information on apartment rentals near the campus, or search for suitable housing on the website. Model Tenancy Agreement · Monthly Rental News Update and House Rental Manual are also provided for free in the Student Housing Service Section.
- (2) Webpage for apartment listings near campus can be found through the following path: → Homepage/Administration/Office of Student Affairs/Student Housing Service/Off-campus Housing.
- (3) You can ask the Student Housing Service Section for assistance in resolving problems with your apartment or conflicts with the landlord.

III Health Service Office(Health Center 2F):(Consultation Line for Freshmen Health Examination:02-82377431)

Health Examination for new students is required by the Ministry of Education and shall be completed by every newly-admitted student . Please note that iNCCU account may not be accessible if the Health Examination is not completed within two weeks after the first day of school.

IV Office of International Cooperation – Administration Building, 8th Floor

International students please contact the Office of International Cooperation (Contact: 02-29393091 ext.67729)

Currently enrolled international students should take note of the following: According to the Immigration Law, international students are required to apply for a visitor visa or resident visa before they enter Taiwan; international students must apply for ARC within 30 days after their arrival, renew ARC before the expired day. If there is change of address, students need to inform immigration agency within 15 days.